PRETRIAL ORDER #8

ORDER APPOINTING CO-LEAD COUNSEL, PLAINTIFFS’ STEERING COMMITTEE, CO-LIAISON COUNSEL, AND CERTAIN COMMITTEE AND SUBCOMMITTEE CHAIRS AND MEMBERS

WHEREFORE, this court reviewed the 75 applications for co-lead counsel, Plaintiffs’ Steering Committee (“PSC”), or liaison counsel (collectively “plaintiffs’ leadership”), and conducted a videoconference¹ interview of each applicant during which the court had the privilege to learn about each applicant’s impressive relevant professional experience and the contributions he or she may offer to the plaintiffs and the court in this multi-district litigation (“MDL”),

WHEREFORE, this court was informed by many of the applicants that this MDL is expected to be expansive and include complex and diverse issues of fact, science, and law because of the class action, medical monitoring, and personal injury claims asserted by the plaintiffs in this case, ¹ This court conducted the interviews of all candidates via Zoom videoconference because of the risks presented by the COVID-19 pandemic and the surge of COVID-19 cases in and around December 2021 through February 2022.

WHEREFORE, this case will require the appointment of an array of highly skilled counsel with diverse backgrounds and experience who will provide the plaintiffs with effective counsel to advance this MDL in an efficient and just manner,

NOW, this 15th day of February 2022, this court HEREBY issues this order to establish the plaintiffs' leadership structure, appoint plaintiffs' leadership members, clarify and expand upon the plaintiffs' leadership responsibilities as set forth in Pretrial Order #1,² and appoint certain committee and subcommittee members and chairs:

- f. delegate specific tasks to other counsel in a manner to ensure that pretrial preparation for the plaintiffs is conducted effectively, efficiently and economically;
- g. enter into stipulations with opposing counsel necessary for the conduct of the MDL;
- h. convene meetings of the PSC, other committees or subcommittees as necessary for the purpose of proposing joint action and discussing and resolving matters of common concern;

- l. monitor work performed by the PSC, Settlement Committee, Leadership Development Committee, co-liaison counsel, subcommittees, and those whose work co-lead counsel has specifically authorized;
- m. perform all tasks necessary to carry out the functions of co-lead counsel and to properly coordinate plaintiffs' pretrial activities;
- n. form task-specific subcommittees of counsel, as appropriate;
- o. authorize plaintiffs' counsel to initiate case-specific motions and discovery;

- r. if there is a settlement, participate with the Settlement Committee in proposing a plan of allocation;
- s. prepare and distribute periodic status reports to the PSC, the court, and the parties; and coordinate and communicate with defendants' counsel with respect to the matters addressed in this paragraph.

³ It is contemplated that the protocol will address the maintenance of time and expense records for work performed, costs incurred, and other disbursements made or any potential common benefit claim, proof of potential common benefit claim, and related matters concerning expenses, disbursements, and receipts, all subject to the approval of the court and to be reviewed by an accountant selected by the Plaintiffs' Time and Expense Subcommittee, with the approval of the co-lead counsel.

No generic discovery or other common action or work in this litigation will be undertaken on behalf of the PSC, or any other committee or any subcommittee except at the direction or with permission of co-lead counsel.

2. Responsibilities and Duties. As set forth in Pretrial Order #1 and as amended in this order, the PSC shall, at a minimum, have the responsibilities set forth in Section 10.221 of the Manual for Complex Litigation (Fourth), and the following responsibilities:

a. DISCOVERY. The PSC shall coordinate with co-lead counsel:

- i. the conduct of all pretrial discovery on behalf of plaintiffs in all actions which are consolidated with the instant MDL;
- ii. develop and propose to the court schedules for the commencement, execution, and completion of all discovery on behalf of all plaintiffs;
- iii. cause to be issued in the name of all plaintiffs the necessary discovery requests, motions, and subpoenas pertaining to any witnesses and documents needed to properly prepare for the trial of relevant issues;
- iv. conduct of all discovery in a coordinated and consolidated manner on behalf of and for the benefit of all plaintiffs, in a fashion in keeping with practice guidelines to be established in subsequent discovery plans or orders of this court.

b. HEARINGS AND MEETINGS. The PSC shall coordinate with co-lead counsel to:

- i. call meetings of plaintiffs' counsel for any appropriate purpose, including organizing responses to questions of other parties or of the court;
- ii. initiate proposals, suggestions, schedules, or joint briefs, and any other appropriate matters pertaining to pretrial proceedings;
- iii. examine witnesses and introduce evidence at hearings on behalf of plaintiffs; and
- iv. communicate on behalf of all plaintiffs at pretrial proceedings and in response to any inquiries by the court, subject to the right of any plaintiff's counsel to present non-repetitive individual or different positions.

c. MISCELLANEOUS. In addition, the PSC shall coordinate with co-lead counsel to:

- i. submit and argue any oral or written motions presented to the court on behalf of the PSC and oppose when necessary any motions submitted by the defendants or other parties which involve matters within the sphere of the PSC;
- ii. negotiate and enter into stipulations with defendants with respect to this litigation; all such stipulations must be submitted to the court for approval, except for purely administrative details; any attorney not in agreement with a non-administrative stipulation may file with the court a written objection thereto within 14 days after the attorney knows or reasonably should have become aware of the stipulation; failure to timely object shall be deemed a waiver, and the stipulation shall be binding on that party;

- iii. maintain adequate files of all pretrial matters and have them available, under reasonable terms and conditions, for examination by plaintiffs or their attorneys;
- iv. prepare periodic status reports summarizing the PSC's work and progress; these reports shall be submitted to the plaintiffs' co-liaison counsel, who will promptly distribute copies to the other plaintiffs' attorneys; and
- v. perform any task necessary and proper for the PSC to accomplish its responsibilities as defined or authorized by the court's orders.

C. Co-Liaison Counsel.

1. Appointment. Because of the expected expansiveness of this litigation and the assertion of class action, medical monitoring, and personal injury claims, the court HEREBY appoints the following 2 counsel as co-liaison counsel:

D. Aaron Rihn

Robert Peirce & Associates, P.C.
707 Grant Street

Mr. Rihn and Mr. Wolff are appointed as co-liaison counsel each with liaison oversight over the entire MDL. Mr. Rihn will have primary responsibility for the administrative tasks as set forth in this order with respect to the personal injury claims. Mr. Rihn is appointed an ex-officio member of any subcommittee tasked with duties or issues related to those claims. Mr. Wolff will have primary responsibility for the administrative tasks as set forth in this order with respect to the class action and medical monitoring claims. Mr. Wolff is appointed an ex-officio member of any subcommittee tasked with duties or issues related to those claims. Mr. Wolff and Mr. Rihn—at the direction of the co-lead counsel—may attend any co-lead, PSC, committee, or subcommittee meeting.

2. Responsibilities and Duties. Co-liaison counsel will be charged with essentially administrative functions as set forth in Section 10.221 of the Manual for Complex Litigation (Fourth). For example, co-liaison counsel shall be authorized to receive orders and notices from the court on behalf of all parties and shall be responsible for the preparation and transmittal of copies of such orders and notices to the parties and the performance of other tasks determined by the court. Co-liaison counsel shall be required to maintain complete files with copies of all documents served upon that counsel in hard copy or electronic form, and to make such files available to parties upon request. Co-liaison counsel are also authorized to receive orders and notices from the Panel pursuant to Rule 5.2(e) of the Panel's Rules of Procedure or from the court on behalf of all parties and shall be responsible for the preparation and transmittal of copies of such orders and notices to the parties. The expenses incurred in performing the services of co-liaison counsel shall be shared by all plaintiffs in the manner to be set forth in the protocol referred to in paragraph A(2)(i) of this order. The co-liaison counsel shall be available for any conference convened by the court and should communicate the substance of any such conference to all other plaintiffs' counsel in conjunction with co-lead counsel, if necessary.

D. Other Committees and Subcommittees. There is a wealth of talent and specialized experience among the applicants for plaintiffs' leadership in this MDL. The court appoints initially the following counsel to the committees and subcommittee identified below to further promote the efficient, just, and speedy resolution of this case and the development of future MDL leaders. This list is not an exhaustive list of the subcommittees which may be appointed in this case.

1. Settlement Committee Appointment. The court HEREBY appoints the following 3 counsel to serve as the chair and vice chairs for the Settlement Committee:

The co-lead counsel shall coordinate with the members of the Settlement Committee and are ex-officio members of the Settlement Committee. Ms. Liebenberg, Ms. Gorshe, and Mr. Stroyd may attend all meetings of the co-lead counsel, the PSC, or subcommittees to further their efforts to settle the cases in this MDL. These appointments do not serve as an exhaustive list of the members and this order does not identify all the duties of the Settlement Committee.

2. Leadership Development Committee Appointment. The court appreciated the enthusiasm and talent of the applicants with minimal MDL experience. A Leadership Development Committee is appropriate in this case to provide those applicants with the education, experience, and mentorship necessary to lead future MDLs. The co-lead counsel shall appoint a member of the PSC to chair this committee and oversee the incorporation of the talents of the members of this committee throughout the litigation. It is the court's intent that the members of the Leadership Development Committee will—where appropriate—meaningfully participate in all phases of this MDL including, but not limited to, participation on committees and subcommittees, drafting master complaints, drafting and arguing briefs, participating in settlement negotiations, and preparing for and taking depositions of lay witnesses and expert witnesses. The court HEREBY appoints the following 10 counsel to the Leadership Development Committee:

Alyson L. Oliver

Oliver Law Group P.C.

pwpendley@pbclawfirm.com

Ms. Oliver and Mr. Pendley shall draft a protocol for the common benefit fund to include the process for the plaintiffs' time and expense submissions, and payments from the common benefit fund. This committee shall monitor and report to the court, co-lead counsel, and the PSC the progress of plaintiffs' time and expense throughout the pendency of this MDL and any payments from the common benefit fund. These appointments do not serve as an exhaustive list of the members or duties of the Plaintiffs' Time and Expense Subcommittee.

E. Terms of Appointment. Counsel who accept the appointments set forth in this order agree to serve for the duration of the MDL or until such time as the court determines that a change in the duration of service shall be made.

F. Personal Appointments. The appointments set forth in this order are personal in nature. The court expects the appointees will draw upon the resources of their firms, their co-counsel, and their co-counsel's firms. Each appointee, however, is personally responsible for the responsibilities and duties that he or she assumes. If any counsel appointed to a leadership position leaves her or his firm during this MDL, the counsel must immediately notify the court, and the court may reassess the counsel's role in a leadership position. If the court allocates common benefit monies at the conclusion of the litigation, the court may consider all firms with which counsel has been affiliated during the litigation and the contributions that each firm has made to the litigation. There should be no expectation that all benefits will be afforded to one firm or another.

G. Review of Appointments. The court will consider a process for periodically evaluating leadership appointees' performance and commitment to the tasks assigned, as well as the ongoing needs of the litigation. The court anticipates that this evaluation will happen on an approximately annual basis; but this timing will be adjusted as circumstances warrant and at a time that minimizes any disruption to the litigation that might occur if changes were made to the team. In evaluating plaintiffs' leadership, the court will consider: the amount of time the counsel has devoted to the litigation; the resources the counsel and her or his firm has contributed to the litigation; whether the counsel is in arrears in her or his contributions; the ability of the counsel to work collaboratively with other counsel, including counsel who is not appointed to plaintiffs' leadership; and the commitment the counsel has shown to the fair, just, and efficient management of this MDL. The court will also periodically assess the needs of the MDL, including whether any additional or different resources, committees, or subcommittees are necessary for the plaintiffs' leadership as the case progresses.

H. Designation of Subcommittee Chairs and Members. The court leaves the creation of any other committees and subcommittees, the designation of other committee and subcommittee chairs (and co-chairs), committee and subcommittee membership, and the timing of the foregoing decisions to the full discretion of co-lead counsel. Co-lead counsel shall determine a structure for a registry and data collection and analytics and shall consider whether a subcommittee will be useful with respect to state/federal coordination and be prepared to report its recommendations to the court.

I. Committee and Subcommittee Members. The chairs (and co-chairs) of any committee or subcommittee shall work under and at the direction of co-lead counsel in all aspects of their work in this MDL. The PSC, committee, and subcommittee members, including those on the Leadership Development Committee, shall work at the direction of co-lead counsel, and, if applicable, under the direction of the relevant committee or subcommittee chair or chairs with respect to that committee's or subcommittee's work performed in this MDL.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
